Dear Dick:

How perfectly marvelous of you to take the time to write a letter of appreciation. Of course what I did was done out of friendship and love and because also of my deep concern to see that you got a fair deal. You suffered much and out of compassion for you and your need, I could do no other.

However, your deal did turn out well and the furnace of suffering that you walked through has brought you many blessings, not the least of which is Anna.

I am pleased that you have another year's contract at the school and I am more than grateful that you have recovered from your heart attack.

Be of good spirits and know that Sunny and I think and speak of you often.

Faithfully yours,

Eugene Exman
